

Job Title: Assistant Professor/Tenure Track/Director of Bands

Brief Statement of Duties: This 9-month tenure track faculty position includes directing the 140-member Wildcat Marching Band and athletic pep bands, conducting the Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble, teaching marching band and symphonic band techniques classes, and instructing other courses as needed by the Department of Music. This is a campus based position.

Minimum Qualifications: Doctorate or equivalent terminal degree in music and three (3) years demonstrated excellence in conducting bands at the high school or collegiate level.

Additional Desired Qualifications:

A terminal degree in instrumental conducting with at least one degree in music education, however terminal degrees in other music areas will be considered.

Minimum three (3) years teaching K-12

One year collegiate marching band experience.

Documented success in an academic classroom setting

Proven success or evidence for future success in recruiting and building a thriving band program

Evidence of sensitivity to and an understanding of the diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, disability, LGBTQ+ and ethnic backgrounds of staff and students

Applicant Materials: application, cover letter, CV, including a page or pdf file that links to recent video recordings of band activities (leading rehearsals and/or performances and unofficial transcripts. Please note that additional materials may be requested. Apply at <https://workatnmu.nmu.edu/en-us/job/494363/assistant-professortenure-trackdirector-of-bands>

Contact information: Dr. Barbara Rhyneer, search chair, brhyneer@nmu.edu and Dr. Flaherty, head of the Department of Music, mflahert@nmu.edu